- Duplication of materials is not an authorization to publish. Users assume all responsibility for conforming with copyright laws and conventions, libel laws and individuals' rights to privacy, and for the literary property rights that may be involved with the use of any CSWR materials.

WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

I will defend and hold harmless the Center for Southwest Research and the University of New Mexico, its board of regents, its officers, employees and agents against all claims, demands, costs, and expenses including attorneys' fees incurred by copyright infringements or any other legal or regulatory cause of action arising from use of CSWR materials.

I have read the above and agree to abide by these restrictions:

Charges and Mailing Information

- Copies will generally be ready within one week; large or complex jobs may take additional time.
- Commercial fees include in-house duplication and use fees.

Commercial fees are charged for one time, one edition, and commercial use of our materials. These uses may include but are not limited to publication in textbooks, consulting reports, newspapers, the popular press, motion pictures, television advertisements, display in business venues, or other commercial ephemera (menus, posters, plans, and brochures). The owner of the copyright may charge fees in addition to those charged by the Library.

No commercial fees are charged for publication and exhibition of materials by government agencies or non-profit organizations (defined by non-profit status). All other businesses, organizations, and consultants will be assessed commercial fees as described below.
